Have you ever flown by a plane? If so, how did you feel? I think it is always fun. Just the thought of flying high in the sky is exciting. The flight attendants are very nice and they try to make your flight as comfortable as possible. If you are on a long distance flight, you even get to watch a movie. Some airlines even have a personal screen for each seat so passengers can conveniently watch a movie or TV program of their choice.

The food may not be that delicious, but most flights offer a variety of menus to choose from. Airplanes were not always as safe as they are today. In fact, the earliest airplanes were quite primitive. They weren't even that fast. Nowadays, however, airplanes have jet engines that allow them to travel as fast as 900 km an hour. They also have lots of life-saving equipment and are well prepared for emergencies.

Today, many people consider airplanes the safest means to travel. Although there were many scary news reports of airplane crashes, fewer people were hurt because of airplane accidents than because of car accidents.

3. Read the following text, then answer the questions :

Global warming الاحتباس الحرارى has become one of the most dangerous problems that face people all over the world. Scientists fear that it will have dangerous effects on the economy and standard of living of the world's people. If the climate continues to grow warmer, the polar ice caps will begin to melt and the level of the world's oceans will rise.

Weather patterns will be affected, and areas of the planet that now get a lot of rain will get considerably less. The climate may stabilize يستقر, providing بشرط the world can control the big amount of CO₂, which is produced by burning fossil fuels, such as coal and oil. If the world community can slow the huge destruction دمار of the world's rainforests, this might also slow down the process a little bit.

There are already indications that we may be too late. Many regions of the world are experiencing their worst droughts جفاف in history. If these droughts continue for another year, there will not be enough water to support the present populations in those areas, and it will be necessary to rationalise يُرشد water, or perhaps to sell it like gasoline, a litre at a time.

3. Read the following text, then answer the questions :

Work is very important in our lives, but do you think we should work all the time without having rest or entertainment? The answer is that we cannot go on working without stopping, from time to time and at regular intervals فواصل, to have some rest and some recreation متعة .

If we did not, we could make mistakes and the quality of our work might get worse. An overworked person may end up by losing the ability to think clearly and by having no energy to go on working. Sleep is one of the ways in which nature renews our energy.

Sports and games are also essential for brain workers, who stay in closed offices and do not have a good chance to exercise their muscles. Such activities as swimming and walking may do them a lot of good, so we should not waste our weekends. They should be made full use of and spent in the open.

Having forgotten all about our work and the worries of life, we can then enjoy ourselves to the full and return the next day to work with our energy fully renewed. Change has a magic effect on man's health and consequently on his performance.

Children love to play computer games. Some people say that many of them are addicted to games. If you become addicted, all you can think about is computer games and you cannot spend a day without playing. Of course, playing games on the computer is a great way to spend time and have fun. But there are also bad sides to it as well.

First of all, children do not get enough exercise because you do not have to move your body much when playing games. Second, your eyesight becomes bad because your eyes are fixed on the computer screen for too long. This is why it is not hard to find children wearing glasses around these days. Third, you do not get to spend much time with your family because you are spending all of your time in front of the computer.

Playing computer games is not such a bad thing. But, too much playing can cause problems. How many hours do you spend in front of the computer? Why not take this opportunity to cut down on computer games?

a. Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d :

The Louvre Museum is one of the largest and most famous museums in the world. The museum is housed in the Louvre Palace, originally built in the late in the 12th to 13th century under Philip II. It was used to display the royal collection, including a collection of ancient Greek and Roman sculpture النحت. In 1793, the museum was opened with an exhibition of 537 paintings, but it was closed from 1796 to 1801.

It was opened again and the collection was increased under Napoleon to 20,000 pieces. Now, it contains more than 380,000 works of art. It is located in the middle of Paris, France. The Louvre attracts millions of visitors each year. It has some of the most famous paintings and sculptures on earth. Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa, and the Greek sculpture "the Winged Victory of Samothrace" (sculpture of Nike) can be found in the museum.

In addition to art, the Louvre has many other types of exhibits, including archaeology علم الآثار, history, and architecture فن المعماريات. 3 Read the following text, then answer the questions :

Colours are all around us. People see things in colour. The primary colours are red, green, yellow and blue. Each colour may be dark or light. Each person has his own favourite colour. Colours decide how people feel and think about the world around them. When people see their favourite colour, they feel happy and comfortable. Colours may make us positive about things we buy or the company that makes them. People like different colours in clothes, cars, vegetables, fruit, accessories, and shoes. Sometimes, colours help us organize our life, like the colours of traffic lights.

However, some people have a problem with colours. They have colour blindness. This means they find it difficult to tell you for sure that something is green, brown, or red. Some animals see things in black and white. Some other animals, like the spiders, can see some colours that people cannot see. Cats and dogs can see blue and green light better than people.

A. Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d :

- The passage is about
 a. problems b. lights c. companies d. colours
- The colours people see may be
 a. dark or light b. short or long
 c. easy or difficult d. big or small
- can see some colours that people cannot see.

3 Read the following text, then answer the questions :

Electricity is an essential part of our daily lives. People use electricity for lighting, heating, cooling, and refrigeration and for operating computers, electronics, machinery, and public transportation systems. Most electricity is generated from non-renewable sources such as coal and natural gas. Efforts are being made to produce more electricity from solar, wind, and nuclear sources so that the natural sources can be saved.

There are many small steps in which we can save electricity. In summer, find times when you can open up the windows for air and cooling instead of switching on the air conditioner or fans. Use energy-saving bulbs as they are brighter and use much less electricity. When you are not charging electronic devices, disconnect them. Most importantly, installing solar panels can help you because they help in saving a lot of energy. Finally, some small changes in each home can make a big difference to the environment.

A. Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d :

- The main idea of the passage is
 a. both water and electricity are essential to our lives so we have to save them.
 b. using natural resources is important to generate electricity and to increase pollution.
 c. electricity is important in modern life so we must save it.
 d. The world will lose its light if there is no gold.
- We should as they are brighter and use much less electricity.

Travel has become much easier than ever before. People began to go on journeys all over the world much more often than they used to in the past. Now, at the start of the new century, travel has become a major industry. Some people travel on business, while others go abroad to study. But by far, the greatest number of people who travel to other countries are tourists. Tourists visit other countries to spend their holidays there to see the world and to observe another culture.

Tourism is one of the fastest-growing industries in the world today. When people travel to another country, they spend money there : In hotels, in restaurants and on buying souvenirs. This is good for the economy of the country they are visiting. Making friends with people from other countries is another benefit of tourism, because this is one of the ways in which people of different races and cultures can begin to understand each other.

Water is life. Water is necessary for every living thing. If there is no water, there will be no life on Earth. Man, animals and plants would have died without it. We can get water from rain, rivers, wells, springs and sometimes from seas after removing salt from their water. People use fresh water for drinking, washing and cooking.

In some places there are healthy springs. The water of these springs is special water which is very good for health. People from faraway places come to drink the water from these springs to recover from their illness.

Scientists do a lot of researches to find solutions to the problem of water in some places. The world should use little water in all fields. Another solution is reusing water. After a meeting, a wife was coming out of a hotel and she was looking for her keys. They weren't in her pockets. She searched the meeting room, but they weren't there. She thought she left them in the car. Her husband has shouted many times for leaving the keys in the car because the car will be stolen. She hurried to the parking place. The parking was empty.

She called the police and gave them her location, car number and the description of the place where she parked her car. She said that she had left her keys in the car, and that it had been stolen.

An hour later, the wife called her husband and told him what had happened. Her husband got angry and said, "I dropped you at the hotel!" She was silent for a moment, then said, "Well, come and get me." He shouted, "I will, as soon as this policeman becomes sure that I haven't stolen your car".

Most of us take selfies from time to time. Actors, music stars, sports stars, and leaders all take selfies. It's very easy to take selfies on a smart phone. But the selfie isn't really a new idea. Back in 1839, a man named Robert Cornelius took the very first selfie. He was a photographer from Philadelphia, America. He took the picture of himself by setting up his camera and then running to stand in front of it.

Why do people take selfies ? Scientists say that it's a way of understanding who we are. It's also a way of controlling how other people see us. When we take selfies, we choose the best ones that make us look really good. We share them with our friends on social media. There are software programs people can use to make the face look "nice".

It took place in Qatar from 20 November to 18 December 2022. It is the first World Cup to be held in the Arab world but it is the second in Asia after the 2002 tournament in South Korea and Japan. The 2022 FIFA World Cup cost over $220 billion. It is the most expensive World Cup ever held. The 2022 tournament included 32 teams. The 2026 FIFA World Cup will be the first to include 48 teams.

To avoid Qatar's hot climate, the tournament organisers decided to hold the 2022 World Cup in Qatar in November and December because of the high temperatures in the summer months in the country. Qatar also designed and built stadiums with outdoor air-conditioning; even using solar panels as its energy source.

4 Read the following text, then answer the questions :

If you visit Japan, you can choose to travel around the country by Shinkansen Train. These high-speed trains connect the main cities of Japan. They are called "bullet trains" because they go very fast and have pointy noses like a bullet.

Bullet trains are a good way to travel for many reasons besides their speed. They are very punctual, often leaving on time to the second. They are also comfortable. All the seats face forward, and there is much leg room. Most importantly, they are very safe as there are rarely any accidents.

The only downside to bullet trains is that they are expensive. A ticket can cost almost as much as a plane ticket. However, if you fly, you will land at an airport outside cities. Train stations are in the middle of cities. This means that it is often easier to take a bullet train instead of flying, because you will arrive exactly where you want to be.

a. Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d :

- As used in the final paragraph, the word downside most nearly means a
 a. good point b. problem c. facility d. habit

A lot of people often admire successful and well-known persons such as great scientists, writers, film stars and sportsmen. They consider them as role models and often try to follow them.

However, there are other heroes in our life. They may be simple and less famous but they play important roles in supporting their communities. We should respect every active farmer who works hard in the hot sun to grow our food. The brave soldier who is ready to die for his country. The clever doctor who works day and night to fight diseases and cure patients. The honest teacher who helps his students and prepares them for life. The good citizen who does social and voluntary work to serve his country.

All those are good examples of the least famous heroes who should get much love, respect and thanking.

Cyber-bullying is a form of online harassment of a person. Nowadays, more and more people use the internet. This is creating new problems for society. On the internet, it is easier for people to hide their identity. This can encourage bullies to use the internet to engage in this kind of harmful behaviour. There are many ways that cyber - bullies use the internet to hurt others.

Cyber-bullies might use social media sites like Facebook to make cruel comments about another person. They may spread lies about someone. They might also try to trick their victim into believing they are in a friendship that is not real. Another form of cyber-bullying is to post embarrassing photos or videos of the victim without asking permission. This kind of bullying is becoming more common, especially among young people.

If you face such a problem, don't stay alone ! You can talk to your family and ask for help. If you are not comfortable talking to them, talk to a teacher or a friend you trust. We should all face this problem : parents, schools and society.
